KAILASH MANSAROVAR YATRA

Mount Kailash and Lake Mansarovar – A Sacred Journey in Tibet

1. Mount Kailash and Lake Mansarovar are among the most sacred pilgrimage destinations in the world, located in the Tibet Autonomous Region of China. Revered by millions of devotees, Mount Kailash is traditionally regarded in Hinduism as the divine abode of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati. Together, these extraordinary destinations represent faith, devotion, spiritual peace, and the timeless beauty of the Himalayas.
2. Mount Kailash rises to approximately 6,638 metres (21,778 feet) above sea level and is part of the Transhimalayan Kailash Range in the western Tibetan Plateau. Its distinctive snow-covered peak and remote surroundings make it one of the most recognisable and spiritually significant mountains in Asia.
3. Nearby, Lake Mansarovar is celebrated for its religious importance and serene natural beauty. Hindu pilgrims associate the lake with Lord Brahma and believe its sacred waters symbolise purity and spiritual renewal. The lake also holds significance in other religious traditions, including Buddhism and Jainism.

Kailash Mansarovar Yatra 2027 by Helicopter from Kathmandu

The Kailash Mansarovar Yatra 2027 by Overland is an extraordinary spiritual journey that takes pilgrims through scenic Himalayan landscapes, remote mountain regions, and the sacred sites of Tibet. This road-based pilgrimage is ideal for travelers who wish to experience the beauty of the Himalayas while undertaking a deeply meaningful spiritual journey to Mount Kailash and Lake Mansarovar.

Arrival in Kathmandu and Tour Briefing:

1. All pilgrims are required to arrive in Kathmandu, Nepal, on their selected arrival date. Upon arrival, our team will assist with the necessary arrangements and provide information about the upcoming journey. An evening briefing and question-and-answer session will be organized to explain the itinerary, travel procedures, required documents, health and safety precautions, and important guidelines for the trip.
2. The following day, pilgrims will enjoy a half-day sightseeing tour of Kathmandu, visiting selected cultural and religious attractions. This also provides an opportunity to experience Nepal's rich heritage before beginning the overland journey toward the Tibet Autonomous Region.
3. After completing the initial arrangements, the group will proceed according to the planned itinerary, crossing mountainous terrain and traveling through designated border checkpoints toward the sacred Kailash Mansarovar region. The journey continues through high-altitude landscapes, with scheduled stops for acclimatization and rest, before reaching Lake Mansarovar and Mount Kailash.

Important Travel and Documentation Requirements:

Indian passport holders must carefully complete the required documentation before departure.

Original Passport: Indian passport holders are required to submit their original passports to our Delhi office at least 7 working days before the scheduled departure, as stated in the trip's visa-processing instructions. Please confirm the current submission deadline with our team before making travel arrangements.

Voter ID Card: All Indian passport holders should carry their original Voter ID card throughout the journey, as required by the applicable travel and border procedures.

Document Verification: Ensure that all personal details on your passport and supporting documents are accurate and consistent. Additional documents may be required depending on the latest visa, permit, and border regulations.

Advance Preparation: Complete the documentation process well in advance to help avoid delays in visa processing and departure arrangements.

Please note: Visa procedures, accepted identity documents, border-entry requirements, and submission deadlines may change. Confirm the latest official requirements with the tour operator before departure.

where devotees come to offer prayers and seek blessings. After sightseeing, transfer to the airport for your afternoon flight to Nepalgunj, which takes approximately one hour. Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel and relax. Depending on flight schedules and operational conditions, the overnight stay may be arranged in Surkhet instead.

Meals: Breakfast and lunch in Kathmandu; dinner at Nepalgunj.

Hotel: Hotel Sneha or a similar property in Nepalgunj.

Day 03: Fly from Nepalgunj to Simikot (2,900m) – Overnight Stay in Simikot

Wake up early in the morning and have breakfast before transferring to the airport for your flight from Nepalgunj to Simikot. Enjoy spectacular aerial views of the Himalayan foothills and remote mountain landscapes during this scenic flight of approximately one hour. Upon arrival in Simikot, transfer to your accommodation and spend the rest of the day resting and preparing for the next stage of the Kailash Mansarovar Yatra. Follow the tour leader's instructions and stay hydrated to help your body adjust to the increasing altitude.

Meals: Breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Hotel: New Potala Palace or a similar property, subject to availability, on a sharing basis.

Day 04: Helicopter to Hilsa (3,700m) & Drive to Taklakot (3,900m) – Overnight Stay in Taklakot

- After breakfast, proceed to the helipad for your helicopter journey from Simikot to Hilsa, which takes approximately 20 minutes, depending on weather and operational conditions. Upon arrival in Hilsa, wait for the remaining group members to assemble, as travellers generally proceed together for group immigration and entry formalities into Tibet.

- After completing the necessary border formalities, drive from Hilsa towards Purang and continue to Taklakot, also known as Purang. The journey covers approximately 27 km, subject to road and border conditions. En route, you may encounter several checkpoints where document verification and security procedures can cause delays. Upon arrival in Taklakot, check in to your hotel and relax after the day's journey.

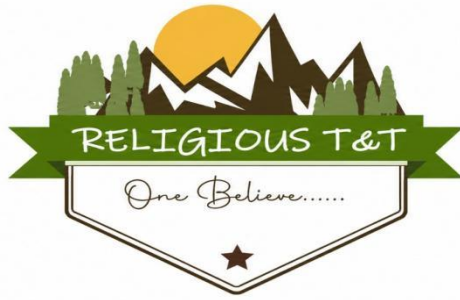

Important Note: Helicopter baggage allowances are strictly controlled and may be limited to approximately 12 kg, subject to the operator's current rules. Confirm the permitted baggage weight before departure.

Meals: Breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Hotel: Hotel Himalaya, New Purang, Riverside, or a similar property, subject to availability.

Day 05: Taklakot (3,900m) – Acclimatization Day – Overnight Stay in Taklakot

- Today is reserved for rest and acclimatization in Taklakot. After breakfast, spend the day relaxing at the hotel and allowing your body to adjust to the high altitude before travelling further towards Lake Mansarovar and Mount Kailash.
- Avoid strenuous activities, drink water regularly, eat light meals, and follow your tour leader's guidance. Use this opportunity to prepare your personal belongings, warm clothing, medicines, and other essentials for the upcoming journey. If you experience symptoms such as a severe headache, persistent vomiting, breathlessness at rest, or confusion, inform your tour leader and seek medical assistance immediately.

Day 06: Drive to Lake Mansarovar (4,550m) – Holy Lake Parikrama & Puja – Overnight Stay near Mansarovar

- Wake up early in the morning and have breakfast before beginning your drive towards the sacred Lake Mansarovar, covering approximately 95 km from Taklakot. During the journey, pass through the designated checkpoints and enjoy the magnificent scenery of the Tibetan Plateau.
- After travelling approximately 70 km, reach the vicinity of Rakshas Tal, a beautiful high-altitude lake. Weather permitting, enjoy views of the majestic Gurla Mandhata mountain range and the first spectacular glimpses of Mount Kailash and Lake Mansarovar. Continue the drive towards the holy lake and take in the serene surroundings.
- Upon arrival, participate in prayers and puja rituals according to your religious beliefs and the arrangements permitted at the site. If road conditions, weather, and local regulations allow, enjoy a drive around Lake Mansarovar to admire its sacred waters and breathtaking Himalayan scenery. The full lake circuit is approximately 90 km and may take around three hours by vehicle, depending on road conditions and local restrictions.
- Later, return to your designated accommodation near Lake Mansarovar. Enjoy dinner and rest for the night as you prepare for the next stage of your spiritual journey towards Mount Kailash.

Meals: Breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Accommodation: Lake Guesthouse or a similar property, subject to availability.

- After breakfast, prepare for the first day of the sacred Mount Kailash Outer Kora (Parikrama). This is one of the most spiritually significant and physically demanding stages of the Kailash Mansarovar Yatra.
 - At approximately 10:00 AM, take a short drive from Darchen to Tarboche, where you will visit the famous Yama Dwar, traditionally regarded as the gateway to the sacred Mount Kailash Parikrama. From here, begin your trek through the spectacular Himalayan landscape, enjoying views of the majestic Mount Kailash and the surrounding valleys.
 - The trek from the starting point towards Dirapuk covers approximately 12 km and generally takes around 5–6 hours, depending on your walking pace, weather, and acclimatization. On arrival, check in to the guesthouse and rest for the night.
 - For pilgrims who do not wish to undertake the Parikrama, arrangements can be made to return to Darchen and wait for the trekking group, subject to transport availability and the operator's arrangements.
1. Meal: Breakfast at Darchen, Packed Lunch, and Dinner
 2. Trekking Distance: Approximately 12 km
 3. Trekking Duration: Around 5–6 hours
 4. Overnight Stay: Guesthouse in Dirapuk or a similar property

Travel Tip: The trek takes place at high altitude. Walk slowly, keep yourself hydrated, wear suitable trekking shoes, and follow your tour leader's instructions. Horses or porters, if available, should be arranged in advance and are subject to local rules and availability.

- Wake up early in the morning and have breakfast before beginning the second and most challenging day of the sacred Kailash Parikrama. Around 7:00 AM, start trekking from Dirapuk towards the holy Dolma La Pass, located at an altitude of approximately 5,700 metres. The total trekking distance is around 22 km and may take 8–9 hours, depending on weather, trail conditions, and individual fitness.
- The trail begins with a steep ascent towards Yamasthal and Shiva-sthal, important spiritual landmarks associated with the pilgrimage. As you continue climbing, you will approach Dolma La Pass, considered one of the most significant and challenging points of the Kailash Parikrama. Small tea shops may be available along certain sections of the route, subject to local operations, where you may be able to purchase tea or hot refreshments.
- After reaching Dolma La Pass, begin the descent towards Gauri Kund, the sacred lake associated with Goddess Parvati. Continue along the trail, which gradually becomes less steep before leading towards Zuthulphuk. Upon arrival, check in to your guesthouse, enjoy dinner, and rest after this demanding day of trekking.

Meals: Breakfast, packed lunch, and dinner.

Accommodation: Guesthouse in Zuthulphuk or a similar property, subject to availability.

Important Note: The Dolma La Pass section involves extreme altitude, steep terrain, and potentially severe weather. Follow your guide's instructions and do not attempt the trek if your health or the conditions make it unsafe. Travellers not participating in the Parikrama will remain in Darchen under the group's arrangements.

- Wake up early in the morning and have breakfast before beginning the final day of the Kailash Parikrama. Start with a relatively gradual trek of approximately 8 km, which generally takes around 3 hours, depending on your walking pace and trail conditions. Enjoy the peaceful surroundings and the feeling of completing this sacred journey around Mount Kailash.
- Upon reaching the designated pickup point, board the group's vehicle and drive towards Darchen, covering approximately 3 km. Here, reunite with the group members who did not participate in the Parikrama. After regrouping, proceed towards Taklakot and continue to the Hilsa border area, covering approximately 122 km, with additional time required for immigration, customs, and other formalities.
- Depending on road conditions, border procedures, weather, and the operating schedule, the group may proceed by helicopter towards Simikot. Upon arrival, check in to the designated accommodation and relax after completing the Parikrama.

Meals: Breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Accommodation: Mansarovar Guest House or a similar property, subject to availability; the final overnight location may be Hilsa or Simikot, depending on operational conditions.

Important Note: The actual transfer arrangements and overnight location will be confirmed by the tour operator based on weather, transport availability, and border formalities.

Day 10: Helicopter to Simikot, Flight to Nepalgunj & Return to Kathmandu – Overnight Stay in Kathmandu

- After breakfast, proceed according to the group's confirmed departure schedule. If staying in Hilsa, board the helicopter to Simikot, a journey of approximately 20 minutes, subject to weather and operational conditions.

- Foreign nationals should confirm passport submission deadlines and photograph specifications with the tour operator.
- A regular stamped Chinese visa may not be accepted as a substitute for the required group visa under the applicable travel arrangements.
- Visa and permit rules may change, so confirm the latest requirements before booking.

4. Kailash Parikrama:

The regular outer Kailash Parikrama covers approximately 42 km over three days:

- Day 1: Approximately 12 km – Darchen to Dirapuk.
- Day 2: Approximately 22 km – Dirapuk via Dolma La Pass to Zuthulphuk.
- Day 3: Approximately 8 km – Zuthulphuk to the designated pickup point.

The inner Parikrama is subject to restrictions and is not normally included in standard packages. Access depends on permission from the relevant authorities.

1. Rescue vehicle: Where permitted and available, partial return by vehicle may be possible for an additional charge. Confirm availability and the current cost locally.
2. Horse and porter services: These can be arranged locally for an additional fee, subject to availability. Even with a horse, some walking may be necessary.
3. Non-trekkers: Travellers who do not participate in the Parikrama can generally remain in Darchen according to the group's arrangements.

5. Money and Personal Expenses:

- Chinese Yuan (CNY/RMB) is the primary currency for expenses on the Tibet side.

- Indian Rupees and US dollars may not be accepted for ordinary purchases in Tibet.
- Exchange money through authorised providers and carry sufficient funds for personal expenses, tips, snacks, and optional services.

6. Clothing and Essential Items:

1. Carry warm layers, thermal wear, a waterproof jacket, trekking shoes, gloves, a warm cap, sunglasses, sunscreen, a face mask, and a walking stick. Bring personal medication and any prescribed high-altitude travel essentials.
2. The company may provide a duffle bag, backpack, cap, passport holder, and waterproof windcheater jacket as complimentary gifts, according to the confirmed package.

7. Group Size and Age Guidance:

- Group size depends on the departure batch and operating arrangements. Travellers should be physically prepared for high-altitude travel and strenuous trekking.
- There may be age-related restrictions under the rules applicable to the departure. Travellers below 10 or above 70 years should seek medical advice and confirm eligibility with the tour operator before booking.

8. Full Moon Departure:

1. Many pilgrims prefer a full-moon departure for religious observances, the Saga Dawa festival, prayers at Lake Mansarovar, or the experience of viewing Mount Kailash under the moonlight.
2. Full-moon dates may attract heavier crowds at border crossings and pilgrimage locations. Confirm the departure schedule and availability well in advance.

9. Fitness and Medical Preparation:

- A medical checkup before departure is strongly recommended. Prepare with regular walking and light exercise, and discuss high-altitude risks with your doctor, especially if you have a pre-existing medical condition.
- The journey involves high elevations, cold weather, remote accommodation, and demanding terrain. Travel insurance should specifically cover high-altitude trekking and emergency evacuation.

10. Cancellation Policy:

The following is an example of the proposed cancellation schedule and should be confirmed against the company's written booking terms:

- 90–150 days before departure: Refund of the eligible payment, less the non-refundable deposit.
- 45–90 days before departure: 75% refund of the eligible payment, less the non-refundable deposit.
- Less than 45 days before departure: Payments may be non-refundable for cancellations due to personal reasons.

The final policy should clearly define applicable date ranges, non-refundable fees, supplier charges, and exceptions.

11. Travel Insurance:

Personal travel insurance is not included in the package price unless expressly stated in the booking confirmation. Travellers are responsible for arranging suitable insurance for the entire journey, including high-altitude trekking, medical treatment, emergency rescue, and evacuation where available.
